

BIOGRAPHY

UNITED STATES TRANSPORTATION COMMAND

Office of Public Affairs, Scott Air Force Base, Illinois 62225-5357

Peter F. Wiederholt

A civil servant of the U.S. Air Force, Peter F. Wiederholt became the Chief of the Joint Secretariat for United States Transportation Command (USTRANSCOM) in March 2012 following three years as a Protocol Specialist for USTRANSCOM.

He is the recipient of the Joint Civilian Service Achievement Award.

Prior to joining the civil service in 2009, he was employed by Booz Allen Hamilton for a year as a consultant focusing on Enterprise Information Management and Microsoft SharePoint implementation.

Prior to joining Booz Allen Hamilton, he served for 23 years as a career Information Manager in the U.S. Air Force until his retirement as a Chief Master Sergeant in 2008 as the Superintendent of the 86th Contingency Response Group.

His assignments included tours at Lackland Air Force Base Texas; Keesler Air Force Base Mississippi; multiple tours at Scott Air Force Base, Ill.; three years at the U.S. Military Delegation to the North Atlantic Treaty Organization; Whiteman Air Force Base, Mo.; the Joint Task Force Southwest Asia in Saudi Arabia; and four years at Ramstein Air Base, Germany.

Wiederholt is the recipient of a Defense Meritorious Service Medal, six Air Force Meritorious Service Medals, Joint Service Commendation Medal, Air Force Commendation Medal, two Joint Service Achievement Medals, and an Air Force Achievement Medal.

A native of Iowa, Wiederholt is married with two sons.

He holds an Associate of Applied Science Degree in Information Management from the Community College of the Air Force and he graduated from the Senior NCO Academy, NCO Academy earning the John L. Levitow Award, NCO Leadership School earning the John L. Levitow and Communicator's Awards, and the NCO Preparatory Course earning the John L. Levitow Award.

(Current as of January 2017)

